

LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

THIS IS ONE WAY TO SHOP

The iron bars at a rear window of the Little Brothers meat market on Cedar street, Indiana Harbor, were pried apart sometime last night and entrance gained through the window. Eight sides of bacon, a dozen eggs, ten pounds of summer sausage and several pounds of butter were stolen.

MARY GARDEN STOLEN, MIKE GEBAS MOURNING

Mike Gebas, 2333 Butternut street, East Chicago, is unhappy today. Mary Garden, his canary, was stolen during the night, cage and all. "Mary was an artist," Mike told the police. "Some said she was a greater actress than she was a singer, but I maintain that she was one of the greatest sopranos of the age. She had a world of pep and everybody liked her so well they called her 'Our Mary.'"

LOSES LICENSE NUMBER

Dr. J. A. Teegarden of East Chicago, reported to the police today that his Ford coupe license number 20539 Ind. has been stolen.

COMPLAINS OF DAGS

A reader of The Times complains of the way female dogs are permitted to run at large in Indiana Harbor and says that it is a disgrace to the city. They ought to be locked up.

REPPA MONEY DISAPPEARS

Fifteen thousand, five hundred dollars of money offered on Callahan has not been taken by Reppa supporters. Odds of 10 to 8 have been offered in East Chicago on Callahan and refused. There is very little betting except on precincts and wards. Bets have been made that Twyman will lead the Citizens' ticket.

Beyond the Pale

It is plain that there are books which are not fit subjects for criticism, which do not rise into the field of artistic being, quite irrespective of the number of editions through which they have passed.—Jules Lemaitre.

Bake-Rite Bread

THE flavor of our bread is fine—you'll say it is. It is a loaf that pleases every one who tastes it. It makes good in the family circle. It's the bread to order, all right.

Twin City News Notes

A special meeting of the Baptist Ladies Aid of Indiana Harbor will be held at Katherine House on Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to alter clothing for the family they are endeavoring to clothe. Bring your thimble and scissors along, also any articles you may have, that could be used in any way for these needy people.

Mrs. Charles Tolf of Ivy street has her little granddaughter Ruth Tolf of Chicago with her this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hensel of Ivy st. had as their guest over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hensel who have been on an extensive western trip to Yellowstone Park, California, Colorado Springs and many other places of interest. They are aunt and uncle of Mr. Hensel, and are returning to their home in Indiana. Other guests at this home over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Squire, of La Grange, Ill., parents of Mrs. Hensel.

Don't forget you are invited to attend the masquerade ball given by the Patrol Girls of the Gary Shrine at the East Chicago Masonic Temple, Friday evening, Oct. 28th. Sterling's orchestra will furnish the music. There is a good time in store for everybody, come out and enjoy yourselves.

MADE A HIT WITH HIM

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mayer's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Summers Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—Adv.
